Respond to the following prompt in a well written paragraph. Use at least 5 vocabulary words from the 2nd Semester list. Be sure to edit your paragraph before submitting it to the teacher.

Writing Prompt: A television network is looking for ideas for a new television series for teenagers. Write a letter to the president of the network explaining your idea for the new television show. Include all the information that will help the president evaluate your idea, including the show's title, what kind of show it is (such as reality, comedy, music, game, or sports), specific details or features of the show that would be appealing to teenage viewers, and an example of what viewers might see in a typical episode.
