ABOUT THE CALENDAR

Each year the Copley-Fairlawn Board of Education is required by law to adopt a school calendar. The school year for students begins August 31, 2010 and ends June 9, 2011.

By Ohio Law, students are required to be in school 182 days, two of which may be professional staff meetings and two parent-teacher conference days. Schools may be closed for up to three days for severe weather conditions or other calamities. If all three calamity days are used, the following dates will be used as make-up days: first day--June 10, second - June 13, and third June 14. If you are in doubt about school being in session, please listen to the radio. Do not telephone the school since this ties up our telephone lines which may be needed for emergency calls. The radio stations used for announcements are WAKR, WKDD, WNIR, and WTAM. If you do not hear the Copley-Fairlawn City Schools announced as closed, schools will be in session as usual.
